MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Hi Everyone,

Spring is finally here, and I do hope everyone has survived the Nor'easters. How lucky you guys were, who were down South. It's all gone by and all is well now.

Before I go on, my sincerest thanks to Phyllis Fuld, our editor for her tedious and outstanding work to lead the way with all her endeavors on the newsletter. I also want to thank the board and members who pitch in, in many capacities in getting this newsletter out the door into the hands of our members.

The board and I are planning a special event to celebrate our 30th year of our F.F.A. organization. Can you believe it? Where did the time go?

A card party is planned for August 2, 2018. We will inform you about this and upcoming events as soon as they are formulated.

As always, we hope you will send in any notes of interest to our members, photographs, along with whatever donation fits your wallets. Remember: donations are a big part in keeping us going which includes everything from postage stamps to the full cost of events. This is very important, and I thank you very much.

Oh yes, let's not forget 3 very important telephone numbers:

1. The Oriental Theatre: Blue Hills 8-1200
2. Morton Theatre: Geneva 6-6300
3. The Franklin Park : Talbot 5-5900

The board and I wish everyone a belated Happy Passover and Happy Easter. Hope all went well with your loved ones.

So, until next time, I remain your President,

Sincerely,
Herb Raffelson

FOUND AN OLD FRIEND

She was one of the tallest girls in school, and he was one of the shortest boys when they attended The Sarah Greenwood School, and the Oliver Wendall Holmes JHS. Nevertheless they were of the same neighborhood, and they were classmates for those several years.

They went to different high schools, and then on to college. He went to MIT. She went to Boston State College. He got a Master's at Northeastern. She got a Master's at Boston State. He was an Electrical Engineer. She taught Foreign Languages. He worked for several companies in various places. She taught in Boston.

He married a girl from Revere, and lived and worked in Europe for a time. She traveled with a friend (but did not cross paths with her former classmate). She returned from abroad, married a man from New York, had a daughter and then a son, and divorced a bit later. Several years later, she met Bob Goldstein, who was raised on Wellington Hill Street in Mattapan, in the 30's and early 40's, with his siblings, Harold, Gene and Harriet.

He got an MBA from Stanford. She got a CAGS (Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies) from Northeastern.

He and his wife moved to California. He retired very young, skied, played golf but mostly played baseball. He continued to play and now is the oldest in his Senior League team, but still throws a snappy ball and is no pushover for the younger guys who think they can get one past him!

She lived in Danvers (what girl from Dorchester moves to Danvers?) Then she and Bob retired to Florida, where she plays Mah Jong and Canasta.

Many years passed, but one day she read a message in the FFA Newsletter. It was from Sarah Rothman wondering if anyone remembered her from Dorchester, or the J.E.B. HS. And if not her, perhaps her brother Joel. She wondered could it be the Joel from her childhood? So she sent a letter to Sarah, via the FFA. Sure enough, it was he.

Over the past couple of years they have emailed back and forth, catching up with one another's lives. A couple of weeks ago he was attending The Red Sox Fantasy Camp in FT. Myers, on the other side of Florida, from where she lives in Boynton Beach. Nevertheless, it was close enough, so after 60 plus years, Joel Weinstein (his wife Bonni was in CA), and Rhoda (Epstein) and her husband Bob Goldstein had a sweet and happy reunion in the little town of Clewiston. Life takes us down many roads, but it is always nice to see old friends from the neighborhood.

Joel Weinstein & Rhoda (Epstein) Goldstein

Irving (Sonny) Weiner passed away on Jan. 10th, 2018...we all miss him. He was always kind, happy and loads of fun and was always ready to discuss the good old day. He loved telling the stories about Franklin Field and the famous wall during the Jewish Holidays, as well as Nantucket tales about the rope walk and the crazy times we all had on the island and about the many trips and adventures we all cherished. His wife Laurie heard these stories a million times but was kind enough to allow Sonny and the guys relate the stories again and again. He and Laurie were always the best of hosts at their homes, as I said earlier, we will always think about him. MAY HE REST IN PEACE. - David Kline of Washington, DC
